Applied Rheology Division
Pre-ANTEC Newsletter, April 2018

Chair's Message

I invite all of you to attend our Applied Rheology Division sessions and events at ANTEC 2018 (May 7-10). In the two fast-paced technical sessions on Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons, you will find about 20 presentations covering theories, experiments and simulations of many problems directly applicable for our fellow plastic engineers. In addition, there is a special reception at the end of Session II where you can chat with your colleagues in person. See you in Orlando! -- Tieqi Li

Sessions

Session I Tues 1:30 – 6:00 PM
Session II Wed 1:30 – 6:00 PM

Invited Talks

"The Rheological Intricacies of Soft Matter"
(Tues 1:30 PM) Prof. Henning H. Winter
"DMA – the other side of rheology"
(Tues 3:00 PM) Dr. Kevin Menard
"Rheology of Polymer Nanocomposites"
(Wed 1:30 PM) Prof. Avraam I. Isayev

Special Thanks

Prof. Donggang Yao of Georgia Tech and Dr. Manojkumar Chellamuthu from SABIC Innovative Plastics, Technical Program Chairs, for organizing the sessions and the entire Board for working diligently behind the scenes
